The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 22. 1717.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Oct. 26.

Hamburgh, October 19.

'TIS said that the Deputies of this City who are return'd from Vienna, have obtain'd all that they were charg'd with to ask of the Imperial Court. Divers Expresses have been dispatch'd to the Court of Denmark, among others, two from the Court of Vienna, upon the Subject of the Detention of our Ships upon the Elbe; so that we hope shortly to see that Affair terminated, and Commerce restor'd. We hear from Lubeck, that Baron Spaar is arriv'd at Yſted in Sweden. We hear from Berlin, that immediately after the Departure of the Czar, General Meyer Minister of his Danish Majesty, had Audience of the King of Prussia, wherein his Prussian Majesty declar'd to him, that he would make no separate Peace with the King of Sweden, whereof he might give Assurance to the King his Master. The same Declaration was also made to the Ministers of Hanover.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Oct. 26.

Hamburgh, Oct. 22. The Danish Minister has now received from his Court, the Complaints upon Accounts whereof the Hamburgh Ships have been detain'd at Glückstadt, which consist in five Points. 1. That the Magistrates have not redress'd the old Grievances complain'd of in 1712, the two Deputies who had been sent to that Purpose to Copenhagen, having return'd without doing any thing, upon Pretence they were not sufficiently instructed. 2. That the City of Hamburgh has, by a publick Placaert, injur'd his Majesty's Right of the Small Mint; in Consequence whereof, they have interdicted the Course of the Species of a Schilling as being of Undervalue, altho' in the Years 1681 and 82, they allow'd the same Pieces coin'd in the Regency of Holstein to pass. 3. That the City has not afforded Justice to the Heirs of Schilling, who are Subjects of Denmark, in a Law-Suit. 4. That by Order of the Magistrates a certain Jew named Meyer, was arrested in the Streets, notwithstanding that he had the King's Pass, and was employ'd by his Majesty upon certain Affairs. 5. That the Magistrates delay giving Justice to the Inhabitants of Altena, and that in passing the Gates of Hamburgh they are obliged to undergo many Vexations.

We hear from Norway, that the King of Sweden is making exceeding strong Works at the Swinesund, and that the Danes do the same on their Side. Commodore Tordenschiold has lately taken nine Swedish Merchant Ships sailing with Provisions from Gottenburg to Stromstad. Yesterday the Assembly of our Burghery being compleat, they proceeded to Business, and agreed to a double Tax upon Houses, a treble Tax upon Burials, and an Excise upon Cattle, which 'tis computed will raise 200000 Rixdollars; Part whereof is to be apply'd to the paying of Convoys, Part for our Quota to the Turkish War, and Part for a free Gift to the Emperour. They are hard at Work at Copenhagen in equipping six Men of War to reinforce the King's Fleet, in Place of the British Ships which are going home. 'Tis written from Sweden, that Count Van Dernath, Count de la Mare, and Baron Spaar, have had a Conference at Lunden, and were thereupon all three gone to wait upon the King, who is on the Frontiers of Norway.

London, October 22.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Oct. 29.

Naples, Oct. 5. Our Gallies will sail this Evening to the Relief of Sardignia, with the Man of War the St. Leopold, upon which are imbark'd 400 Germans, 100 of the Regiment of Roma, and 150 Catalan Volunteers. We have receiv'd Advice that the Spaniards, attempting to gain the Post of the Capuchin Monastery at Cagliari, were repuls'd with the Loss of 60 Men. Four Tartanes are said for Orbitello, with Cannon, Troops and Abundance of Ammunition. On Thursday a Ship arriv'd here from Sardignia, with Advice that Cagliari still defends itself with great Courage, especially since the Regiment of Hamilton arriv'd.

Genoa, Oct. 9. We hear that Cagliari still defends itself.

Belgrade, Oct. 10. The Turkish Aga who arriv'd here lately with Propositions of Peace from the Ottoman Porte, talks the German Language very well, and appears to be a Man of great Understanding, and well dispos'd towards Peace. The Vizier with much impatience the Commissaries whom his Imperial Majesty shall name, to enter into Negociation with them.

Vienna, Oct. 16. Many Generals and Officers daily arrive here, the Troops being all march'd into their Winter Quarters. We hear from Esseck, that Prince Eugene of Savoy was arrived there from Belgrade, so that he is soon expected here. Upon Occasion of the Arrival of a Turkish Aga with Propositions of Peace, his Imperial Majesty has named for Commissaries to treat with him, General Count de Hamilton, and Mess. Dalman and Fleischman, Counsellours in the Council of War. We hear that a Body of 15000 Turks fell upon the Rear of our Troops who withdrew from the Siege of Zwornick, and put them into some Disorder, killing 300 Men of the Regiments of Hanover and Darmstadt.

Hague, Oct. 27. Baron Bentenrieder his Imperial Majesty's Minister, departed from hence Yesterday for Rotterdam, where he will immediately imbark for England. The Coaches and other Equipage which the British Minister the Lord Cadogan had caus'd to be made at Brussels, are arriv'd; but the Day of his Publick Entry is not yet declar'd, and 'tis said that he will first make a short Tour to the British Court.
